Annual General Meeting and Shree Jalaram Jayanti Celebrations

Saturday 19th November starting at 6.00pm.

A programme of Bhajans and Kirtan presented by Mrs Rohini Patel and the Divine International Pariwar Group.

6.00pm : Annual General Meeting. Agenda: To have the opportunity to question the current committee about any matters arising and to look at the objectives and operation issues. To adopt the accounts for the year ended 31 October 2011. This will be followed by Elections for office Bearers to hold office 2011-2012. Anyone wishing to stand up for elections contact the Secretary for a nomination form. The form is also available on our Website. The Nomination form may be posted to our secretary, Jaylesh Pandya, to the address as stated on the form or it may be scanned and Emailed to info@sarvoday.org.uk. The nominations close at 3pm Wednesday 16th of November.

7.00pm Special Prasad - sponsored by Shree Yogeshbhai Thakar and family.

8.00pm Sharp A very special Jalaram Jayanti programme, to celebrate the life of this great Saint from Virpur in Gujarat; presented by the one and only Rohiniben Patel supported by various international artistes of the Divine International Pariwar Group.

All our bhajan events incur an overall loss of around £500. Any little you donate goes towards the costs and will encourage us to continue to engage professional groups for all our Bhajan events. All donations are gratefully accepted.

All members nominating themselves to be on the committee, should be paid up members of the Sarvoday Hindu Association as at Wednesday 16th November 2011.

The 'Sarvoday Hindu Association' thanks all members for their presence at this years successful 'Kingsston Navratri Festival'. This year the youth made us very proud by wearing the most colourful traditional Gujarati Costumes. Thank you. We also thank the truly kind-hearted donors without whom we could not organise such large scale events. The Committee sincerely wishes all members and friends a very 'Happy Diwali' and 'Saal Mubarak' a prosperous New Year.
